

A Benefit Concert

For the Yamuna River Project

by

Facing East Trio

(www.facingeast.com)

Featuring....

John Wubbenhorst
(flute),

A disciple of Pandit Hari Prasad Chaurasia

Steve Zerlin (Bass) and

Samrat Kakkeri (Tabla)

October 17, 2009

8:00 - 10:00 PM

Johns Hopkins Gilchrist Hall

9601 Medical Center Drive

Rockville, MD 20850

(Free Parking)

"A stunning virtuoso display of the bamboo flute, the compositions and arrangements are equally impressive"

Washington Post

"The bansuri flute is one of the most sensual and serene instruments to come of India. Only a couple of westerners have mastered its intricacy, one is John Wubbenhorst"

Billboard Magazine

$20 in Advance/$25 at the Door; $35 (Front Rows)

For Tickets -Please Contact Lalit Sippy at 703-256-8868 (M-Sat 10am-9pm) or visit <http://rowfoundation.org>

A Potomac Yamuna Partnership
in River Cleanup

All Proceeds Benefit the Rivers of the World Foundation who's sole mission is to make all efforts to cleanup highly polluted rivers in the United States, India, Southeast Asia, South America, Africa, and Europe.

Alice Ferguson Foundation
(<http://fergusonfoundation.org/>)

Rivers of the World Foundation
(<http://rowfoundation.org>)